Isabelle Vernalia is a third-year seminarian and graduate student at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, and is a candidate for Word and Sacrament in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). Much of her ministry experience has focused on working with youth and young adults, particularly LGBTQ+ youth, through summer camp ministry and the ministry department at her alma mater, Regis College. After completing her undergraduate studies in Humanities & Education, she spent time exploring Celtic, Sacred Feminine, and Pagan/nature-based spiritual communities, experiences that have continued to deepen and shape her spirituality. Isabelle enjoys listening to music, performing in theater, and taking walks in nature. Isabelle lives in Westford, MA, and will be staying in New London, NH during her CPE placement. This is her first time doing CPE, and she is very excited to learn, grow, and get to know everyone in the HHH community.
