MYSTERY

Stolen in Death by J.D. Robb

A violent death and a vault of stolen treasures has Lt. Eve Dallas struggling to solve crimes old and new in this 2026 thriller -the next in her bestselling series. A blow to the head with a block of amethyst has left multibillionaire Nathan Barrister dead—while nearby, a vault, its door ajar, sits filled with priceless paintings, jewelry, and other treasures. Lieutenant Eve Dallas's husband, Roarke—who misspent his youth in Ireland as a scrappy thief—recognizes at least two stolen pieces among the hoard. The crime scene suggests a burglar caught in the act. But only one item seems to be missing.

Fury In Death by J.D. Robb

This thriller is Robb's 2nd in 2026, in her bestselling series. NYSPD homicide detective Eve Dallas has seen a lot in her time but even she is shocked by the savagery of a beating which leaves a wealthy biotech executive dead in his home office. The victim's corpse is so mangled and damaged it's hard to believe a lone assailant would be capable of this. The killer is clearly unnaturally strong. Or very, very angry.

NON-FICTION

A World Appears by Michael Pollan

When it comes to consciousness, there is one point scientists, philosophers and artists all agree on: that it feels like something to be ourselves. In his book, Pollan traces the unmapped continent that is consciousness from several radically different perspectives – scientific, philosophical, spiritual, historical and psychedelic – to see what each has to teach us about this fundamental fact of our lives.
