FICTION

Black and Blue by Anna Quindlen

In Black and Blue, Fran Benedetto tells a spellbinding story: how at nineteen she fell in love with Bobby Benedetto, how their passionate marriage became a nightmare, why she stayed, and what happened on the night she finally decided to run away with her ten-year-old son and start a new life under a new name.

MYSTERY

Absolute Power by David Baldacci

In a heavily guarded mansion in a posh Virginia suburb, a man and a woman start to make love, trapping a burglar behind a secret wall. Then the passion turns deadly, and the witness is running into the night. Because what he has just seen is a brutal slaying involving the President of the United States. Luther Whitney is the career break-in artist who's in the wrong place at the wrong time. Alan Richmond is the charming U.S. President with the power to commit any crime. And Jack Graham is the young attorney, caught in a vortex between the absolute truth -- and...

Cold Zero by Brad Thor

A vanished plane. An earth-shattering secret. A countdown to World War III.

Hemisphere Airlines Flight 777—the most advanced jetliner ever built—disappears without a trace over the North Pole. Crippled by sabotage, it crash-lands on the ice, stranding the surviving passengers in a wasteland of frigid cold and chaos. Hidden inside the wreckage is the prototype for a revolutionary piece of technology that could upend the balance of world power. Now Washington, Moscow, and Beijing are racing to be the first on scene to retrieve it—at any cost. With the clock ticking and the temperature dropping, the fate of the free world is about to be decided at the top of the globe

NON-FICTION

Streets of Gold: America's Untold Story of Immigrant Success

by Abramitzky, Ran (331.6)

This book uses big data to challenge myths about immigration, showing that immigrants and their children consistently achieve upward mobility, often surpassing the U.S.-born, and that assimilation happens at a similar pace today as it did in the past.
