FICTION

Theo of Golden by Allen Levi

A story of kindness and giving back. A novel about the power of creative generosity. Theo is a man who comes to a town called Golden, a small city in the south. He visits the local coffeehouse, where he sees portraits of the people of Golden drawn by a local artist. Theo decides to purchase them and give each portrait to the rightful owners. With each meeting, Theo learns more about the person, and they come away inspired by his kindness.

The Remembered Soldier by Anjet Daanje

Reviewers say this is extraordinary love story and a captivating novel about the power of memory and imagination. Flanders 1922. After serving as a soldier in World War 1, Noon Merckem lost his memory and lives in a psychiatric asylum. Countless women, responding to a newspaper ad, visit him there in the hope of finding their spouse who vanished in battle. Julienne, appears and recognizes Noon as her husband, the photographer Amand Coppens, and takes him home against medical advice. There the story begins.

MYSTERY

The Ladies Road Guide to Utter Ruin by Alison Goodman

Set in Regency England, the eccentric Colebrook sisters are amateur detectives who use their wits and invisibility as “old maids” to fight injustice in this delightful and fiercely feminist novel that blends mystery, adventure and a dash of romance.

The Keeper by Tana French

On a cold night in the remote Irish village of Ardnakelty, a girl goes missing. Sweet, loving Rachel Holohan was about to be engaged to the son of the local big shot. Instead, she’s dead in the river.
