FICTION

Still Alice by Lisa Genova

Alice Howland, happily married with three grown children and a house on the Cape, is a celebrated Harvard professor at the height of her career when she notices a forgetfulness creeping into her life. As confusion starts to cloud her thinking and her memory begins to fail her, she receives a devastating diagnosis: early onset Alzheimer's disease.

MYSTERY

The Closers by Michael Connelly

After three years out of the LAPD, Harry Bosch returns, to find the department a different place from the one he left with a new Police Chief.. Working with his former cop partner, Kiz Rider, Harry is assigned to the department's Open-Unsolved Unit, working on the thousands of cold cases that haunt the LAPD's files. These detectives are the Closers - they put a shovel in the dirt and turn over the past. By applying new techniques to old evidence they aim to unearth some hidden killers and bring them to justice, for 'a city that forgets its murder victims is a city lost'.

RESIDENT AUTHOR

Sole to Soul: Walking A Path Toward Loving Accompaniment

by Eleanor MacLellan

Resident Author Eleanore MacLellan explores the healing power of community, spiritual restoration, and the complex journey of raising a struggling teenager. Eleanor chooses to craft a large, portable canvas labyrinth for her church (South Church in Concord, NH) and the community. Realizing she cannot carry her emotional burdens alone, she enlists the help of five fellow female South Church members who together become known as the "Labyrinth Ladies".
