FICTION

Same As It Ever Was by Claire Lombardo

The novel traces the life of a woman named Julia Ames from childhood through marriage and motherhood in contemporary Chicago and the surrounding suburbs. Through shifting timelines, the novel explores Julia's internal conflicts as she faces changes in her life and seeks to reconcile her personal identity with motherhood and marriage.

MYSTERY

The Secret Keeper by Kate Morton

During a summer party at the family farm in the English countryside, sixteen-year-old Laurel Nicolson spies a stranger coming up the long road to the farm and watches as her mother speaks to him. Before the afternoon is over, Laurel will witness a shocking crime. A crime that challenges everything she knows about her family and especially her mother. Now, fifty years later, Laurel is a successful and well-regarded actress living in London. The family is gathering at Greenacres farm for her mother Dorothy's ninetieth birthday. Realizing that this may be her last chance, Laurel searches for answers to the questions that still haunt her from that long-ago day, answers that can only be found in Dorothy's past.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

New Hampshire Covered Bridges by Glenn Knoblock

New Hampshire Covered Bridges is a photographic study of the state's enclosed wooden spans that date from as far back as 1827. The book contains rare photographs of historic bridges that no longer exist, as well as pictures of many that still stand today
