FICTION

Vacationland by Meg Moore

During a summer in Maine, Louisa has come to her parents' house in Maine with her three kids, a barely written book that has a looming deadline, and a trunkful of resentment. She must confront her father's Alzheimer's and a mysterious family secret. While Kristie arrives with her own hidden past, leading to intersecting revelations. A compelling portrayal of family, responsibility, ambition, and loss.

MYSTERY

After That Night by Karin Slaughter

Fifteen years ago, Sara Linton's life changed forever when a celebratory night out ended in a violent attack that tore her world apart. Since then, Sara has remade her life. A successful doctor, engaged to a man she loves, she has finally managed to leave the past behind her. Until one evening, on call in the ER, everything changes.

NEW ENGLAND

A Year in the Maine Woods by Bernd Heinrich

The year begins as he settles into a cabin with no running water and no electricity, built of hand-cut logs he dragged out of the woods with a team of oxen. There, alone except for his pet raven, Jack, he rediscovers the meaning of peace and quiet and harmony with nature—of days spent not filling out forms, but tracking deer, or listening to the sound of a moth's wings
