FICTION

Country People by Daniel Mason

Miles Krzelewski is a devoted husband, a doting father beloved for his outlandish bedtime stories, and the proud owner of a truffle-hunting dog in a land with no truffles. He is also a bit lost, twelve years late with his PhD on Russian folktales and increasingly haunted by a sense that he's become a disappointment to his family. So when his wife, Kate, accepts a visiting professorship at a prestigious college in the faraway forests

The Borrowed Life Frederick Fife by Anna Johnston

"A funny, heartfelt story about found family and seeing the silver lining in life. Frederick Fife was born with an extra helping of kindness in his heart but he's broke and on the brink of eviction. Fred's luck changes when he's mistaken for Bernard Greer, a missing resident at the local nursing home, and takes his place. When Denise Simms, a caregiver at Fred's facility, becomes suspicious about his true identity, they both rediscover their sense of purpose

MYSTERY

Mad Mabel by Sally Hepworth

Meet Elsie Mabel Fitzpatrick: eighty-one years old, gloriously grumpy, fiercely independent, and never without a hot cup of tea—or a cutting remark. She minds her own business in her quiet Melbourne suburb, until a neighbor turns up dead and the whispers start flying. Because Mabel wasn't always Mabel. Once upon a headline, she was Mad Mabel Waller—Australia's youngest convicted murderer.
