FICTION

Where the Forest Meets the Stars by Glendy Vanderah

JoTeale, a young cancer survivor who has rented a cottage in the country in order to complete a research project about birds to complete her PhD, finds a strange girl in the woods, who claims to be an alien. The story explores themes of love and recovery as Jo builds a bond with the girl and forms a relationship with her socially anxious next-door neighbor. The three have formed an incredible bond. As the summer nears an end and Ursa gets closer to her fifth miracle, her dangerous past closes in. When it finally catches up to them, all of their painful secrets will be forced into the open, and their fates will be left to the stars.

MYSTERY

The Widow by Fiona Barton

There's a lot Jean hasn't said over the years about the crime her husband was suspected of committing. She was too busy being the perfect wife, standing by her man while living with the accusing glares and the anonymous harassment. Now her husband is dead, and there's no reason to stay quiet. There are people who want to hear her story. They want to know what it was like living with that man. She can tell them that there were secrets, there always are in a marriage. The truth—that's all anyone wants. But the one lesson Jean has learned in the last few years is that she can make people believe anything.
