FICTION

In Wonderland by Joyce Maynard

In one golden summer, Frances trades her working-class world for an elite Maine lakeside estate, where privilege and betrayal play a deadly game in this coming-of-age drama. For Frances, becoming a mother's helper at Wonderland feels like stepping into a fairy tale. Even better, she gets to spend the summer of 1986 with Forrest Emerson, her father's charismatic childhood friend who escaped their neighborhood to build this perfect world. But beneath Wonderland's shimmering surface, nothing is quite what it seems. By Labor Day, a death will shatter the crystal-clear waters of Lake Catherine, leaving Frances to question everything she thought she knew about privilege, power, and the price of belonging.

MYSTERY

Missing Half by Ashley Flowers

Two women haunted by their sisters' unsolved disappearances band together in this captivating mystery. Nicole "Nic" Monroe is twenty-four, she lives alone in a dinky apartment in her hometown of Mishawaka, Indiana. Everyone has felt sorry for her for the last seven years, since the day her older sister, Kasey, vanished without a trace. Nic wants nothing more than to move on from her sister's disappearance and the state it's left her in. But then one day, Jules's sister, Jenna Connor, walks into Nic's life and offers her something she hasn't felt in a long time: hope. What follows is a gripping tale of two sisters who will do anything to find their missing halves, even if it means destroying everything they've ever known.
