FICTION

The Nantucket Restaurant by Pamela Kelley

Three sisters, each at her own crossroads in life, inherit a Nantucket restaurant and embrace working together. Mandy, Emma and Jill O'Toole are as close as three sisters who live hundreds of miles apart can be. They grew up together on Nantucket, but have scattered around the country. When their beloved grandmother passes peacefully she leaves them quite a surprise. In addition to her Nantucket home, they learn that they've inherited Mimi's Place, one of Nantucket's most popular year-round restaurants. They had no idea that she was the silent owner of a restaurant, and no idea how they're going to handle this kind of inheritance.

MYSTERY

Lighting Strike by William Krueger

. Aurora is a town nestled in the forest along Minnesota's Iron Lake. In the summer of 1963, it is the whole world to twelve-year-old Cork O'Connor. But when he stumbles upon the body of a man he revered, it is the first in a series of events that will cause him to question everything. Cork's father is Aurora's sheriff, and it is his job to confirm that the man's death was a suicide, as all the evidence suggests. In the shadow of his father's official investigation, Cork begins to look for answers of his own. Together, father and son must choose between what their heads tell them is true, and what their hearts know is right.
